

Hannah R. Murray, PLA, ASLA
hannah7rob@gmail.com

P.O. Box 132
Candor, NY 13743
(607) 227-1838

Professional Certifications

Professional Landscape Architect (PLA)

State of Maryland Registration No. 3439, State of New York No. 2427

MD February 2008
NY December 2013

Professional Experience

Rodgers Consulting, Inc.

Senior Landscape Architect

Prepare and support planning and zoning regulatory approvals including preliminary, site, planting, and grading plans. Provide design input and create plans for feasibility and design analyses, environmental approvals including forest conservation plans and MDE/USACE permits (work remotely).

Germantown, Maryland

Feb. 2021 – Current

Hannahland Landscape Architecture, PLLC

Member

Startup Woman-Owned business providing residential and commercial design, site plans, planting plans, stormwater management design and compliance, feasibility studies, master planning, subdivision design.

Candor, New York

April 2019 – Current

R.B. Robinson Contracting, Inc. / H.L. Robinson Sand & Gravel, Inc.

Payroll/Human Resources Administrator, Assistant Corporate Secretary

Wide-ranging business support role for site work/excavation contractor and aggregate producer including managing and processing payroll and human resources, accounts payable and receivable, safety and drug testing compliance, NYSDOT permits and fleet compliance, OSHA/MSHA compliance.

Candor, New York

June 2014 – May 2021

Rodgers Consulting, Inc.

Senior Environmental Planner

Provide support on part time basis for ongoing projects after relocating to New York (work remotely).

Germantown, Maryland

Dec. 2013 – Dec. 2014

Senior Environmental Planner, Senior Associate

Conduct inventory and analysis tasks including; natural resource inventories (NRI); forest stand delineations (FSD) and wetland delineations; feasibility studies; GIS analysis; Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) feasibility studies; water quality sampling. Develop design documents and steward the approval process for; forest conservation plans (FCP); stream restoration plans; tree save plans and planting plans; wetland and stream mitigation plans; and develop site specific design strategies to minimize impacts to natural resources. Maintain regulatory knowledge of laws and initiatives including; wetlands, waterways, and National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits; forest conservation law; several LEED rating systems; stormwater management and sediment control; local green building law; and the Chesapeake Bay total maximum daily load (TMDL). Collaborate daily with engineers, surveyors, planners, regulatory agencies, subcontractors, and clients.

Dec. 2006 – Dec. 2013

Greenhorne & O'Mara, Inc. (now Stantec Inc.)

Landscape Architectural Designer

Responsibilities included field work and plan preparation of environmental plans such as NRIs and FSDs. Design and analysis work included FCPs, feasibility studies, opportunities and constraints maps, development standards and zoning analyses, layout studies, and planting plans including some bioretention design. Other tasks included photographic exhibits, site grading, Microstation and hand drafting and rendering, and coordination with project teams.

Germantown, Maryland

Sep. 2004 – Nov. 2006

Education

University of Maryland

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture with Honors Citation

College Park, Maryland

May 2004